1. INTRODUCTION

Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) is a joint venture of the Government of India and the Government of Karnataka, responsible for implementing and operating the Namma Metro project in Bengaluru. Its primary mandate is to plan, construct, and manage metro rail services to provide efficient, safe, and sustainable urban transport, reduce traffic congestion, and support transit-oriented development. BMRCL also undertakes property development around metro stations to generate non-fare revenue and promote integrated urban growth.

2. SCOPE OF SERVICES

The scope of services to be provided by the Consultant / Transaction Advisor, as described below, is indicative and not exhaustive. It does not include all incidental services that may be required to complete the assignment. The Consultant shall provide services in accordance with the true intent and meaning of this scope, regardless of whether certain tasks are explicitly mentioned, provided they can be reasonably inferred. The scope shall also be governed by the provisions of the Contract to be executed between the Consultant and BMRCL, which sets forth detailed terms and conditions. There may be several incidental services and assignments not listed herein but necessary for completing the work in all respects.

Phase 1: Feasibility Study

The Consultant will carry out a feasibility study for the project, considering local and regional scenarios, applicable laws, regulations, standards, and other relevant factors.

I. Location and Site Analysis
- Study connectivity, terrain, proposed development plans, and applicable development control regulations.
- Assess available infrastructure (roads, water, power).
- Evaluate approach roads and local connectivity through existing and proposed mass transport.
- Conduct perception mapping and assess growth potential of the site.
- Examine economic and business trends impacting proposed development.
- Review regulatory scenario and implications.

II. Market Demand Assessment
- Analyse real estate trends, demand drivers, recent and proposed developments, competition, and asset class formats.
- Conduct demand assessment to define appropriate product mix (e.g., way-side amenities, commercial offices, rental housing, retail spaces, hospitality assets).

III. Project Conceptualization
- Suggest development options for optimal land utilization.
- Determine project components for integrated land development.
- Assess space requirements for individual components and common facilities (utilities, parking, security).

- Ensure compliance with government guidelines and development control regulations.
- Recommend land use conversions if required.

IV. Financial Feasibility Analysis
- Prepare project cost estimates (CAPEX, O&M, financing costs, taxes, contingencies).
- Develop cost recovery and revenue generation options.
- Build a detailed financial model including assumptions, demand forecast, funding structure, cash flows, P&L, balance sheet.
- Conduct financial analysis (FIRR, NPV, sensitivity analysis).

V. PPP Options Development and Project Structuring
- Evaluate PPP options considering funding sources, cost recovery mechanisms.
- Rank options and recommend optimal PPP modality.
- Provide details of proposed PPP structure, risk assessment matrix, and stakeholder impacts.
- Identify legal risks and allocate appropriately.
- Organize stakeholder consultations (investors, lenders, equity partners) and incorporate feedback.
- Recommend most suitable PPP structure.

VI. Marketing Sounding Exercise

Conduct structured interactions with potential private sector participants to validate project parameters (risk allocation, revenue models, technical design, contractual terms). Use feedback to refine project structure and bidding documents to enhance bankability and competitive participation.

Phase 2: Bid Process Management

The Consultant shall prepare all necessary documents in compliance with public procurement laws and support BMRCL throughout the PPP bidding process until award of contract.

I. Bid Process Design
- Recommend bid strategy.
- Prepare qualification and evaluation criteria.
- Advise on best-value bidding parameter.

II. Preparation of Bidding Documents
- Draft RFP, concession agreements, and related documents.
- Support bidder communication and marketing of the project.

III. Managing the Bid Process

The Consultant shall assist BMRCL in managing the entire bid process for the project, ensuring transparency and compliance with applicable procurement guidelines. The key activities include:
- Assistance in Roadshows and Conferences.
- Clarifications to Bidders
- Pre-Bid Consultations:

- Evaluation of Proposals
- Finalization of Evaluation Reports
- Award of Concession
- Finalization and Signing of Concession Agreement

16.3 The Bidder shall include with his Bid an index that cross-refers all the Employer's bid requirements elaborated in these documents to all the individual sections within Bid submittals which the Bidder intends to be the responses to every one of those requirements. The Bid submittals must be presented, all pages numbered, and laid out in a logical sequence with main and subheadings to facilitate evaluation.

16.4 The server time (which is displayed on the bidders' dashboard) will be considered as the standard time for referencing the deadlines for submission of the bids by the bidders, opening of bids, etc. The bidders should follow this time during bid submission.

16.5 The Employer may, at his discretion, extend the date for the submission of the Bid by amending the Bid Documents in which case all rights and obligations of the Employer and the Bidder previously subject to the original date shall thereafter be subject to the new deadline as extended.

16.6 The Bidder shall ensure that a receipt/acknowledgment is obtained for the submission of his bid at the KPP Portal.

17.0 LATE BIDS:

Submission of Bids shall be closed on the KPP Portal at the last date & time of submission prescribed in LOI or as mentioned in subsequent addendum/corrigendum after which no bid shall be accepted by the e-portal.

BMRCL will not be responsible for any delay, internet connection failure, or any error in uploading the bid. The bidders are advised to upload their submissions well before the due date and time of bid submission to avoid any problems and last-minute rush.

18.0 MODIFICATION AND WITHDRAWAL OF BIDS

18.1 Except where expressly permitted by these Instructions, the Bidder shall not make or cause any alteration, erasure, or obliteration to the text of the documents prepared by the Employer and submitted by the Bidder with or as part of his Bid.

18.2 No modifications or withdrawal of bid shall be permitted after the deadline for submission of the Bid. Withdrawal of the Bid after the deadline for submission of Bids but before the period of Bid Validity shall result in the Employer's action as per Clause 13.6 of Instructions to Bidders (ITB).

18.3 The Bid submitted online will be taken as the final bid.

E. BID OPENING AND EVALUATION

19.0 BID OPENING

19.1 The bids shall be opened online in the KPP Portal by the Employer on the scheduled date and time of bid opening as mentioned in LoI or as per subsequent amendment if any at the office of the address mentioned in LoI. (If such scheduled date for opening of Bid is subsequently declared as a Public Holiday by the Employer, the next official working day shall be deemed the date of opening of the Bids).

19.2 On opening the bid, the bid opening committee will first check the bid security (EMD) documents submitted by the bidder on the KPP Portal.

19.4 Bid submittals/ documents of all online bids accepted by the Employer on the KPP Portal shall be downloaded for further evaluation.

20.0 PROCESS TO BE CONFIDENTIAL

20.1 Except for the public opening of Bid on the KPP Portal, information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation, and comparison of Bids and recommendations concerning the award of Contract shall not be disclosed to Bidders or other persons not officially concerned with such process.

20.2 Any effort by a Bidder to influence the Employer in the process of examination, clarification, evaluation, and comparison of Bids and decisions concerning the award of contract, may result in the rejection of the Bid.

21.0 CLARIFICATION OF BIDS

21.1 Evaluation of Bids submitted by Bidders shall be undertaken based on details submitted in the Bids only. Employer may at his discretion ask any Bidder for clarification on his submittals through KPP portal. The Bidder, in response to the clarification, is not permitted to submit additional information not pertaining to the clarification sought. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing only through KPP Portal and no response leading to material change in the submittals will be permitted.

22.0 DETERMINATION OF RESPONSIVENESS

22.1 For this clause, a responsive Bid conforms to all the terms, conditions, and specifications of the Bid documents without material deviation or reservation which include exceptions, exclusions & qualifications. A material deviation or reservation is one which affects in any substantial way the scope, quality, performance, or administration of the works to be undertaken by the Bidder under the Contract, or which limits in any substantial way, the Employer's rights or the Bidder obligations under the Contract as provided for in the Bid documents and/or is of an essential condition, the rectification of which would affect unfairly the competitive position of other Bidders presenting substantially responsive Bids at reasonable price.

22.2 The Employer may waive any nonconformities in the Bid that do not constitute a material deviation, reservation, or omission. The Employer may request the Bidder to submit the necessary information or documentation, within a reasonable period, to rectify nonmaterial nonconformities in the Bid related to documentation requirements. Requesting information or documentation on such nonconformities shall not be related to any aspect of the price of the Bid. The request of the Employer for clarification and the response of the bidder shall be in writing through KPP portal. Failure of the Bidder to comply with the request may result in the rejection of his Bid.

22.3 If a Bid is not substantially responsive to the requirements as stipulated in Bid documents, it will be rejected by the Employer, and subsequently will not be permitted to be made responsive by the Bidder by correction or withdrawal of the non-conformity or infirmity. The Bid of such Bidder shall not be opened on the KPP Portal.

22.4 The decision of the Employer as to which of the Bids are not substantially responsive shall be final.

23.0 EVALUATION OF BID

23.1 Evaluation of bids

23.1.1 The Employer will carry out the evaluation of Bid submittals/ documents of all online bids accepted by the Employer in the KPP Portal to determine that the Bidder has a full comprehension of the assignment. Where a Bidder's submittal is found to contain any material deviation or reservation with the requirement of work, the bid may be rejected.

23.1.2 Evaluation of Bid involves verification of Bid Security for its adequacies in accordance with Clause 13 of Instructions to Bidders (ITB).

23.1.3 Further bids will be evaluated for Eligibility cum Qualification Criteria (EQC). If the Bidder fails to meet the requirements of EQC, then evaluation of 'price bid' will not be done.

23.1.4 Offers, deviations, and other factors that are more than the requirements of the Bid documents or will otherwise result in the accrual of unsolicited benefits to the Employer shall not be considered in the Bid evaluation.

23.1.5 The evaluation of Bids by the employer will take into account, in addition to the Bid amounts, the following factors.

(a) Arithmetical errors corrected by the Employer as per Clause 23.2.5 of Instructions to Bidders (ITB).

(b) Such other factors of an administrative nature as the Employer may consider having a potentially significant impact on contract execution, price and payments, including the effect of items or unit rates that are unbalanced or unrealistically priced.

23.1.6 Correction of Errors

The Evaluation Committee will determine whether the Financial Proposals are complete, (i.e. whether they have costed all Items and add their cost), correct any Computational Errors.

23.1.7 The effect of the price adjustment provisions of the Conditions of Contract, to be applied over the period of execution of the Contract, shall not be considered in bid evaluation.

23.1.8 Conditional quotes for any or all schedules of Price Bid may lead to rejection of Bid.

F. AWARD OF CONTRACT

24.0 AWARD CRITERIA

24.1 Subject to Clause 25.0 of Instructions to Bidders (ITB), the Employer will award the Contract to the Bidder whose bid has been determined to be substantially responsive and compliant to the requirement contained in the bid documents as per sub-clause 23.1 of Instructions to Bidders (ITB) and who has offered the lowest Evaluated Bid Price.

25.0 EMPLOYER'S RIGHT TO ACCEPT ANY BID AND TO REJECT ANY OR ALL BIDS

Notwithstanding Clause 24.0, the Employer reserves the right to accept or reject any Bid and to annul the Bid process and reject all Bids, at any time before the award of the contract without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Bidder or Bidders or any obligations to inform the affected Bidder or Bidders of the grounds for Employer's action.

26.0 NOTIFICATION OF AWARD

26.2 Until a formal contract is prepared and executed, the issuance of a 'Letter of Acceptance' shall constitute a binding Contract.

26.3 Bid Securities (EMD) of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them immediately after issuance of a 'Letter of Acceptance' to the successful bidder.

27.0 SIGNING OF CONTRACT AGREEMENT

27.1 The Employer shall prepare the Contract Agreement in the format as prescribed in Contract Forms (Form-1), with such modifications as may be necessary for duly incorporating all the terms of the agreement between the two parties. 2.0 ELIGIBLE BIDDERS

2.1 Bidder may be a Proprietorship Firm/ Partnership Firm/Private Limited Company/ Public Limited Company.

2.2 Any Bidder from a country that shares a land border with India will be eligible to bid in this Bid only if the Bidder is registered with the Competent Authority. Further, any bidder (including from India) having a specified Transfer of Technology (ToT) arrangement with an entity from a country that shares a land border with India, shall also be required to be registered with the same competent authority constituted by the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Government of India or the Competent Authority constituted by Government of Karnataka.

i. "Bidder" (including the term 'Bidder', 'consultant' or 'service provider' in certain contexts) means any person or firm, or company, including any member of a consortium or joint venture (that is an association of several persons, or firms or companies), every artificial juridical person not falling in any of the descriptions of Bidders stated hereinbefore, including any agency branch or office controlled by such person, participating in a procurement process.

ii. "Bidder from a country which shares a land border with India" means: - a. An entity incorporated, established, or registered in such a country; or

b. A subsidiary of an entity incorporated, established, or registered in such a country; or
c. An entity substantially controlled through entities incorporated, established, or registered in such a country; or
d. An entity whose beneficial owner is situated in such a country; or

e. An Indian (or other) agent of such an entity; or
f. A natural person who is a citizen of such a country; or
g. A consortium or Joint venture where any member of the consortium or joint venture falls under any of the above.

iii. The beneficial owner for the purpose of (ii) above will be as under:

a. In case of a company or Limited Liability Partnership, the beneficial owner is the natural person(s), who, whether acting alone or together, or through one or more juridical person, has a controlling ownership interest or who exercises control through other means.

- "Controlling ownership interest" means ownership of or entitlement to more than twenty-five per cent of shares or capital or profits of the company;
- "Control" shall include the right to appoint a majority of the directors or to control the management or policy decisions including by their shareholding or management rights or shareholders agreements or voting agreements.

b. In the case of a partnership firm, the beneficial owner is the natural person(s) who, whether acting alone or together or through one or more juridical persons, has ownership of entitlement to more than fifteen percent of capital or profits of the partnership.

c. In the case of an unincorporated association or body of individuals, the beneficial owner is the natural person(s), who, whether acting alone or together or through one or more juridical persons, has ownership of or entitlement to more than fifteen percent of the property or capital or profits of such association or body of individuals.

d. Where no natural person is identified under (a) or (b) or (c) above, the beneficial owner is the relevant natural person who holds the position of senior managing official;

iv. Successful Bidder shall not be allowed to sub-contract works to any contractor from a country that shares a land border with India unless such contractor is registered with the Competent Authority. The definition of "Contractor from a country which shares a land border with India" shall be as in para (ii) above.

v. The registration shall be valid at the time of submission of bids and at the time of acceptance of bids.

vi. If the bidder was validly registered at the time of acceptance/placement of the order, registration shall not be a relevant consideration during contract execution.

2.3 Bidder is required to submit an undertaking for compliance with the above Clause 2.2. (Attachment-3, Attachment-3A, and Attachment-3B).

2.4 The above clause 2.2 will not apply to Bidders from those countries (even if sharing a land border with India) to which the Government of India has extended lines of credit or in which the Government of India is engaged in development projects. Updated lists of countries to which lines of credit have been extended or in which development projects are undertaken are given on the website of the Ministry of External Affairs.

2.5 Bidders shall not have a CONFLICT OF INTEREST that affects the Bidding Process. Any Bidder found to have a Conflict of Interest shall be disqualified. A Bidder will be deemed to have a Conflict of interest with one or more parties in this Bidding process, if:

(a) a bidder submits more than one bid either individually or as a partner for a Consultancy Service will result in disqualification of all its bids for that Consultancy Service.

(b) the Bidder lends, or temporarily seconds its personnel to Firms or organizations which are engaged in executing services related to procurement for implementation of this project if the personnel was involved in any capacity on the same project.

2.6 As of the date of submission of the Bid, the Bidder should not be excluded as per the GROUNDS FOR EXCLUSION. The Bidder should submit an undertaking to this effect.

i) GROUNDS FOR EXCLUSION will constitute the following if the Bidders (in case of JV applicable to all members).

(a) are bankrupt, being wound up or ceasing their activities, are having their activities administered by the courts, have entered into receivership, or are in any analogous situation arising from any similar procedure.

(b) have been convicted within the past five years by a court decision, which has the force of residential jurisdiction in the country where the project is implemented, of fraud or corruption or any other offense committed during the procurement or performance of a contract, unless they provide supporting information together with their Statement of Integrity which shows that this conviction is not relevant in the context of this project.

(c) have committed serious professional misconduct within the past five years during the Procurement or performance of a contract, as evidenced by any means by the Employer.

(d) have not fulfilled their obligations regarding the payment of social security contributions or taxes under the legal provisions of the country where they are established or the Employer ‘s country.

(e) have indulged in ‘Corrupt Practice’; “corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or contract execution.

(f) have indulged in ‘Fraudulent Practice’; “fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts to influence an evaluation process or the execution of a contract and includes collusive practices among Bidders (before or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels and to deprive the Employer of the benefits of free and open competitions.

(g) have been considered ineligible due to execution of Bid–Securing Declaration by any Central Govt./State Govt./PSUs.

(h) have been Blacklisted/debarred/banned business by any Central Govt./State Govt./PSUs.

(i) have left/abandoned the services awarded incomplete on his own in the last 05 years.

(j) have been rescinded/terminated by BMRCL / Any Other Metro Organization (100% owned by Govt.) after award during the last 3 years (from the day of bid submission) due to non-performance of the service, executed either individually or in a JV/Consortium for services.

(k) have been either penalized with liquidated damages of 10% (or more) of the contract value due to delay or imposed with a penalty of 10% (or more) of the contract value due to any other reason in any Contract awarded by BMRCL/any other Metro Organization (100% owned by Govt.), during last three years (from the day of bid submission).

ii) Bidders may also note that in case the Bidder (applies to each member in case of a Joint Venture/Consortium) is excluded as per Ground for Exclusion mentioned above, after the due date of submission of Bid but before award of the contract by BMRCL, they shall inform the same to BMRCL in writing within 5 working days, failing which it will be considered that the Bidder has wilfully concealed the information and the Bidder shall be solely responsible for all implications that may arise under the conditions of this RFP.

iii) Any such exclusion will result in disqualification of the Bidder and the financial proposal of such Bidder shall not be opened in case the evaluation is still in progress. In case the Financial Proposals have already been opened, and the Contract is not yet awarded, the Financial Proposal will not be further considered for evaluation.

3. Obligations of Consultant

3.1 Scope of Work/Services to be Performed by the Consultant.

(i) Consultants shall perform Services and carry out their obligations hereunder with all due diligence, efficiency and economy, in accordance with generally accepted professional techniques and practices, and shall observe sound management practices, and employ appropriate advanced technology and safe methods. The Consultants shall always act, in respect of any matter relating to this Contract or to the Services, as faithful advisers to the Employer, and shall at all times support and safeguard the Employer's legitimate interests in any dealings with Sub-consultants or third parties. The Detailed Scope of the Work/Services is stated in TOR.

ii) Notwithstanding any review of its organisation structure, staff or manning schedules, the Consultant shall remain wholly responsible for providing the services. If, in the opinion of the BMRCL, the progress or performance of the Consultant's service is seen to be at any time inadequate to meet those requirements, the Consultant shall take the necessary steps to improve them on being so notified. If within a reasonable period the Consultant has not improved its progress or performance, the Employer may by written notice require it to take additional measures, including changes in its organization, at no additional cost to the Employer. Such notice shall be in no way deemed to constitute a waiver of the Employer's rights to terminate the Agreements because the Consultant breached the contract. Failure by the Employer to issue such notice shall not relieve the Consultant of its obligation to achieve the required rate of progress and quality of service.

iii) The Consultant shall not sub-contract any portion of the work without the Client's prior written consent.

3.2 Conflict of Interest.

3.2.1 The remuneration of the Consultant shall constitute the Consultant's sole remuneration in connection with this Contract or the Services and, the Consultant shall not accept for their benefit any trade commission, discount, or similar payment in connection with activities under this Contract or to the Services or in the discharge of their obligations hereunder, and the Consultant shall use their best efforts to ensure that any Personnel either of them, similarly shall not receive any such additional remuneration.

3.2.2 The Consultants agree that, during the term of this Contract and after its termination, the Consultants and any entity affiliated with the Consultants, as well as any Sub-consultant (If applicable) and any entity affiliated with such Sub-consultant (if applicable), shall be disqualified from providing goods, works or services (other than the Services and any continuation thereof) for any project resulting from or closely related to the Services.

3.3 Performance Security

The Consultant shall provide the Employer with a Performance Security for an amount as stated in 'Contract Data' in the form of a Bank Guarantee in favor of Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Ltd, payable at Bengaluru from Indian Scheduled Bank (excluding Co-operative banks) or a Scheduled Foreign Bank as defined in Section 2(e) of RBI Act 1934 read with Second Schedule in the form given in Contract Form-2. In the case of a Joint venture/consortium, the Performance Bank Guarantee can be furnished by any member or member of the Joint venture/consortium. The Performance Security BG shall remain valid for at least up to 60 days beyond the contract period as described in the RFP document. The Employer reserves the right to forfeit the Performance Security amount in the event of termination of the Services and shall have the right to redeem the Bank Guarantee. In the case required by the employer, the Performance BG is to be extended by the Consultant at his own cost.

Performance Guarantee BG shall be released to the Consultant within 28 days after the submission of the Final Report and its acceptance by the Employer.

3.4 Insurance to be Taken out by the Consultants

3.4.1 The Consultants (a) shall take out and maintain, and shall cause any Sub-consultants to take out and maintain, at their (or the Sub-Consultants', as the case may be) own cost but on terms and conditions approved by the Employer, insurance against the risks, and for the coverage, as shall be specified in the 3.4.2 and (b) at the Employer's request, shall provide evidence to the Employer showing that such insurance has been taken out and maintained and that the current premiums have been paid.

3.4.2 Insurance Coverage

The insurance coverage against the risks shall be as follows:

(a) Professional liability insurance, with a minimum coverage should be not less than the total Contract price.

(b) Third Party motor vehicle liability insurance in respect of motor vehicles operated in the Employer's country by the Consultant or its Experts or Sub-Consultants, with a minimum coverage "in accordance with the applicable law in the Employer's country";

(c) Third Party liability insurance, with a minimum coverage "in accordance with the applicable law in the Employer's country";

(d) employer's liability and workers' compensation insurance of the Experts and Sub-Consultants in accordance with the relevant provisions of the applicable law in the Employer's country, as well as, concerning such Experts, any such life, health, accident, travel, or other insurance as may be appropriate; and

(e) insurance against loss of or damage to (i) equipment purchased in whole or in part with funds provided under this Contract, (ii) the Consultant's property used in the performance of the Services, and (iii) any documents prepared by the Consultant in the performance of the Services.

3.5 Consultant's Actions Requiring Employer's Prior Approval

The Consultants shall obtain the Employer's prior approval in writing before taking any of the following actions:

(a) Any changes in the Key Personnel. If it is necessary to replace any Key person of CONSULTANCY, the latter shall immediately arrange for replacement by a person of comparable or superior competence with the approval of the Employer.

(b) Any other action that may be specified in the contract.

3.6 Authorized Representatives

For the administration of the Agreement, the Consultant shall designate the official or individual to be his authorized representative (Project Coordinator) and who shall be responsible to the Engineer/Employer for various deliverables as per the scope of Services.

3.7 Reporting Obligations

The Consultants shall submit to the Employer the reports and documents specified in the form, in the numbers, and within the periods outlined in TOR.

4. Change in Constitution

The consultant shall promptly notify the Employer of any changes in the constitution of the Consultant. The Employer reserves the right to terminate the Agreement upon death, retirement, insanity, or insolvency of any person being the proprietor/partner in the Consultant, or on the addition or introduction of a new partner managing the Project for the Consultant without the previous approval in writing of the Employer. Until its termination by the Employer as aforesaid, this Agreement shall be in full force and effect, notwithstanding any changes in the constitution of the firm by death, retirement, insanity or insolvency of any of its proprietors/partners or addition or introduction of any new partners. In case of death or retirement, the surviving or remaining partners of the firm shall be jointly and severally liable for the due and satisfactory performance of all terms and conditions of the Agreement, and likewise, on the addition of a new partner, the latter will also become jointly and severally liable.

5. Information

The Employer shall give to the consultant, free of cost, all information which they may be able to obtain, and which may pertain to the Services.

6. Decisions

On all matters referred to in writing by the Consultant, the Employer shall give a decision in writing within a reasonable time.

7. Assistance

The Employer shall use its best effort to assist Consultants as per the Scope of services: (i) providing unobstructed access wherever it is required. (ii) Seeking access to other organizations / Institutions for collection of information.

8. Liability of Consultant to BMRCL

Consultant shall be liable to pay compensation to the Employer arising out of or in connection with the Agreement if a breach of Contract is established against him. Such compensation shall be of reasonably foreseeable loss and damage suffered as a result of such breach. The total liability of the Consultant to the Employer shall be limited to the contract price.

9. Duration of Liability

The consultant shall not be considered liable for any loss or damage resulting from any occurrence unless a claim is formally made on him before the expiry of the relevant period stated in Conditions of Contract, or such earlier date as may be prescribed by law.

Duration of Liability shall be as stated in Contract Data.

10. Commencement and Completion

The Services shall be commenced from the Date of Issuance of Letter of Acceptance (LOA) and completed at the times or within the period as mentioned in Contract Data (as per the Schedule of deliverables for which payment is associated) subject to extension in accordance with the Conditions of Contract.

10.1 Time for Completion

Time is the essence of the Contract and will remain so at all times during the pendency of the Contract including the extended period of the Contract. The time for the completion of service is as stated in 'Contract Data'.

10.2 Extension of Time for Completion

The Consultant may apply for an extension of the Time for Completion if the Service is or will be delayed after the Time for Completion by any of the following causes.

a. "Force Majeure" referred to in Clause 13.0.
b. Instruction of the Engineer to suspend the Services and the Consultant not being in default as to reasons of suspension.
c. Any order of Court restraining the performance of the Contract in full or in any part thereof and the Consultant not being in default as to reason of such order of court.
d. Any other event or occurrence which, according to the Employer is not due to the Consultant's failure or fault and is beyond his control without Employer being responsible for the same.
e. An Employer's Variation.

10.3 Extension of time for delays due to consultant

If the delay in the completion of the whole Services or a portion of the Services, for which an earlier completion period is stipulated, is due to the Consultant's failure or fault, and the Engineer is of the view that the remaining Services or the portions of Services can be completed by the Consultant in a reasonable and acceptable short time, then, the Engineer may allow the Consultant extension or further extension of time at its discretion with or without liquidated damages, for completion, as he may decide.

11. Modifications

Modification of the terms and conditions of this Contract, including any modification of the scope of the Services or of the Contract Price, may only be made by written agreement between the Parties.

12. Liquidated Damages

Time is of the essence of the Contract. It shall be the bounden duty of the Consultant to strictly adhere to the time for performance of various services indicated in the Contract. In case of any delays, the Consultant shall be liable to pay Liquidated damages as specified in Contract Data.

13. Force Majeure

13.1 If, at any time during the currency of the Contract, the performance in whole or in part by either party of any obligation under this Contract shall be prevented or delayed by reasons of any war, hostilities, invasion, acts of public or foreign enemies, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, civil commotion, sabotage, large scale arson, floods, earthquake, large scale epidemics, nuclear accidents, any other catastrophic unforeseeable circumstances, quarantine restrictions, any statutory rules, regulations, proclamation, orders for requisitions issued by a Government Department or Competent Authority or Acts of God (hereinafter referred to as "event") or any other cause whether of similar or dissimilar nature beyond the reasonable control of the party affected then, provided notice of the happening of such an event as given by either party to the other within 21 days of the occurrence thereof:-

a) Neither party shall, by reason of such event, be entitled to terminate the Contract or have claim for damages against the other in respect of such non-performance or delay in performance.
b) The obligation under the Contract shall be resumed as soon as practicable after the event has come to an end or ceased to exist.
c) If the performance in whole or part of any obligation under the Contract is prevented or delayed by reason of the event beyond a period mutually agreed to if any, or 60 days, whichever is more, either party may at its option terminate the Contract.
d) In case of doubt or dispute, whether a particular occurrence should be considered an "event" as defined under this clause, the decision of the Engineer shall be final and binding.
e) If the Contract is terminated under this Clause, the Consultant shall be paid fully for the services carried out under the Contract up to date of termination of contract.
f) If neither party issues notice regarding the event within 21 days of its occurrence, the said event shall be deemed not to have occurred, and the Contract will continue to have effect as such.

13.2 If circumstances arise for which the Consultant is not responsible and which makes it impossible for him to perform in whole or in part the Services in accordance with the Contract including force majeure, he shall promptly notify the Employer.

In these circumstances, including force majeure, if certain Services have to be suspended, the time for their completion shall be extended until circumstances no longer exist plus a reasonable period not exceeding 7 days for resumption of them.

14. Suspension

14.1 The Employer may suspend all or part of the Services by notice of at least 30 days to Consultant who shall immediately make arrangements to stop the Services and minimize expenditure.

14.2 The Employer may by written notice of suspension to the Consultant, suspend all payments to the Consultant hereunder if the Consultant fails to perform any of their obligations under this contract, including the carrying out of the Services, provided that such notice of suspension (i) shall specify the nature of the failure, and (ii) shall request the Consultant to remedy such failure within a period not exceeding thirty (30) days after receipt by the Consultant of such notice of suspension.

15. Termination

15.1 Termination by Employer

The Employer may terminate this Contract, by not less than thirty (30) days' written notice of termination to the Consultant, to be given after the occurrence of any of the events specified in paragraphs (a) through (d) of this Clause and sixty (60) days in the case of the event referred to in (e):

(a) if the Consultant do not remedy a failure in the performance of their obligations under the Contract, within thirty (30) days of receipt after being notified or within such further period as the Employer may have subsequently approved in writing.

(b) if the Consultant (or any of their members) become insolvent or bankrupt.

(c) if, as the result of Force Majeure, the Consultants are unable to perform a material portion of the Services for a period of not less than sixty (60) days; or

(d) if the Consultant, in the judgment of the Employer has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the Contract.

For the purpose of this clause:

"Corrupt Practice" means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the selection process or in contract execution.

"Fraudulent Practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a selection process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Employer and includes collusive practice among Consultants (prior to or after submission of proposals) designed to establish prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the Employer of the benefits of free and open competition.

(e) If the Employer, in its sole discretion and for any reason whatsoever, decides to terminate this Contract.

15.1.1 If the Contract is terminated,

(i) On termination of the Contract, the Performance Guarantee in full concerning the contract price as mentioned in LOA shall be encashed/forfeited.

(ii) The Defaulting Consultant shall not be issued any completion certificate for the contract.

(iii) After termination, the Employer may complete the Assignment and/or arrange for any other entities to do so, in any manner whatsoever or by adopting any means whatsoever, as decided by the Employer. The balance Assignment shall be done independently without risk & cost of the failed Consultant.

(iv) The failed Consultant shall be debarred from participating in the tender for executing the balance assignment. If the failed Consultant is a JV or a Partnership firm, then every member/partner of such a firm shall be debarred from participating in the tender for the balance Assignment in his/her capacity or as a partner of any other JV/partnership firm.

15.2 Termination by the Consultants

The Consultants may terminate this Contract, by not less than thirty (30) days written notice to the Employer, such notice to be given after the occurrence of any of the events specified in paragraphs (a) through (c) of this Clause:

(a) if the Employer fails to pay any monies due to the Consultants under this Contract within forty-five (45) days after receiving written notice from the Consultants that such payment is overdue.
(b) If the Employer is in material breach of its obligations under this Contract and has not remedied the same within forty-five (45) days (or such longer period as the Consultants may have subsequently approved in writing) following the receipt by the Employer of the Consultants' notice specifying such breach.
(c) if, as a result of the Force Majeure, the Consultants are unable to perform a material portion of the Services for not less than sixty (60) days.

15.3 Payment upon Termination

Upon termination of this Contract under Clauses 15.1 or 15.2, the Employer shall make the following payments to the Consultants:
(a) Amount due for Services satisfactorily performed before the effective date of termination.
(b) except in the case of termination under paragraphs (b) and (d) of Clause 15.1, reimbursement of any reasonable cost incident to the prompt and orderly termination of the Contract.

16 Payment to the Consultant.

16.1 Contract Price

Contract Price is the sum stated in the Letter of Acceptance and GST applicable. Contract Price is subject to such additions thereto or deductions there from as may be made under the provisions of the Contract. The Employer will pay Output GST as applicable in accordance with the prevailing rules on the submission of GST invoices.

16.1.1 Change in Law and Taxes

i) "Change in Law" means the occurrence or coming into force of the following, at any time after the date of submission of the Bid:

a) Any new taxes, duties, cess, or levies which are imposed which impact the performance of the Consultant with increased costs or which result in extra financial gains to the Consultant due to decreased cost in the execution of the Assignment.
b) Change in any law pertaining to the Assignment having the above-said impact.

ii) Then the Engineer shall certify such additional or reduced costs after examining records provided by the Consultant and shall be paid by or credited to the Employer.

iii) However, a change in the rate of any existing tax, duties, cess, or levies will not be considered a change in Law. Any risk of change of Tax rate (except Output GST) whatsoever of Tax rate to the assignment lies with the Consultant.

16.2 Payment

a. The Employer would make the payment in favor of the Consultant within 15 working days after the certification of the invoice submitted towards the performance of services by the Consultant.
b. Final Payment: Full payment shall be payable upon submission of the Final Report.

16.3 Payment for Additional Services

To determine the remuneration due to additional services, it shall be agreed mutually on a pro-rata basis for the additional services.

16.4 Currency of Payment

All payments shall be made in Indian Rupees only.

16.5 Price variation

Price Variation does not apply to this Consultancy Service.

17 Law Governing the Contract

This Contract, its meaning and interpretation, and the relation between the Parties shall be governed by the applicable laws of the Republic of India.

18 Language

This Contract has been executed in English language, which shall be the binding and controlling language for all matters relating to the meaning or interpretation of this Contract.

19 Ownership of Material and Copyright

The copyright of all documents prepared by the Consultant in the performance of the Services under the Agreement shall be vested with the Employer. Consultants shall, not later than upon termination or expiration of this Contract, deliver all such documents and software/soft copies to the Employer, together with a detailed inventory thereof. The Consultant may retain a copy of such documents and software but shall not use them for proposals unrelated to this Contract without prior written approval of BMRCL/Employer.

20 Confidentiality

The Consultant shall during the tenure of the contract and at any time thereafter maintain strict confidence for all information relating to the consultancy and shall not, unless so authorized in writing by the Employer, divulge or grant access to any information about the consultancy or its results and shall prevent anyone from becoming acquainted with either through managers or its personnel. The Consultant shall not divulge the information obtained in the course of consultancy in any manner whatsoever. The Consultant shall also return all reports, notes, and technical data relating to the operational matters to the Employer.

The Consultant shall keep it secret and confidential and shall not disclose to any third party does not use in any unauthorized manner any confidential information regarding the present processing technology and the business affairs of the Employer which the Consultant may have acquired through negotiations, discussions, examination of drawings, designs, process layout, use of infrastructures, etc., leading to the conclusions of this Contract.
The parties further agree not to use such information for any purpose whatsoever except in the manner expressly provided for in this Contract. The obligations hereunder shall survive any termination or cancellation of this Contract.

The documents, all original field records, reports, spreadsheets, or other materials developed by the Consultant under this Contract shall be delivered to the Employer and shall become the property of the Employer.

However, Consultant may retain and use copies of the Documents for the limited purposes for its reference and record in connection with the Project, and for statutory and regulatory requirements to which Consultant is subject, but Consultant shall not divulge the information collected, or conclusions drawn or recommendations made by it during the performance of the "Services" to any third party unless, and only to the extent, expressly authorized in writing by the Employer to do so, for 5 years from the completion of the contractual obligations.

The Consultants shall not, during the term of the Contract and within two years after its expiration, disclose any proprietary or confidential information relating to the Services, this Contract, or the Client's business or operations without the prior written consent of the Client.

21 Notices

Notices under the Contract shall be in writing and will take effect from receipt at the address stated in the Contract. Delivery can be by hand or facsimile message against a written confirmation of receipt or by registered letter or by e-mail subsequently confirmed by letter.

22 Claims, Disputes and Conciliation

Any and all Disputes shall be settled in accordance with the provision of this Clause

22.1 Procedure for Claims

If the Consultant intends to claim any additional payment under any clause of these Conditions or otherwise, the Consultant shall give notice to the Engineer as soon as possible and in any event within 28 days of the start of the event giving rise to the claim. The Consultant shall keep such contemporary records as may be necessary to substantiate any claim, either on the Site or at any other location acceptable to the Engineer. Without admitting the Employer's liability, the Engineer shall, on receipt of such notice, inspect such records and may instruct the Consultant to keep further contemporary records. The Consultant shall permit the Engineer to inspect all such records, and shall (if instructed) submit copies to the Engineer.

Within 28 days of such notice, or such other time as may be agreed by the Engineer, the Consultant shall send to the Engineer a fully detailed claim which includes full supporting particulars of the basis of the claim and additional payment claimed. If the event or circumstance giving rise to the claim has a continuing effect:

a) the initial fully detailed claim shall be considered as interim;
b) the Consultant shall send further interim claims at monthly intervals, giving the cumulative amount claimed, and any such further particulars as the Engineer may reasonably require; and
c) the consultant shall send a final claim within 28 days after the end of effects resulting from the event or circumstance, or within such other period as may be proposed by the Consultant and approved by the Engineer.

If the Consultant fails to comply with this Sub-clause, he shall not be entitled to claim any additional payment.

22.2 Payment for Claims:

The Consultant shall be entitled to have included in any Interim Payment Certificate such amount for any claim as the Engineer considers due, after taking approval from the Employer. If the particulars supplied are insufficient to substantiate the whole of the claim, the Consultant shall be entitled to payment for such part of the claim as has been substantiated.

22.3 No Legal action till Dispute Settlement Procedure is Exhausted

Any and all Disputes shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Clause 17. No action at law concerning or arising out of any Dispute shall be commenced unless and until all applicable Dispute resolution procedures set out in Clause 17 shall have been finally exhausted in relation to that Dispute or any Dispute out of which that Dispute shall have arisen with which it may be or may have been connected.

22.4 Notice of Dispute

A Dispute shall be deemed to arise when one party serves a notice in writing (hereinafter called a "Notice of Dispute") within 30 days from the date of rejection of claim by the parties.

22.5 Dispute Resolution

Disputes shall be settled through Conciliation procedures as established by “The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996” and as amended from time to time.

22.6 Conciliation

Within 60 days of receipt of Notice of Dispute, either party shall refer the matter in dispute to conciliation. Conciliation proceedings shall be initiated within 30 days of one party inviting the other in writing to Conciliation. Conciliation shall commence when the other party accepts in writing this invitation. If the invitation is not accepted, then Conciliation shall not take place. If the party initiating conciliation does not receive a reply within 30 days from the date on which he sends the invitation, he may elect to treat this as a rejection of the invitation to conciliate and inform the other party accordingly.

The Conciliation shall be undertaken by one Conciliator selected from a panel of Conciliators maintained by the Employer. The Conciliator shall assist the parties to reach an amicable settlement in an independent and impartial manner.

22.7 Conciliation Procedure

The Employer shall maintain a panel of Conciliators with requisite qualifications and professional experience who shall be from serving or retired engineers of Government Departments, or of Public Sector Undertakings. Panel list not to include serving or former employees of the Employer. Out of this panel, a list of three Conciliators shall be sent to the Consultant who shall choose one of them to act as Conciliator and conduct conciliation proceedings in accordance with "The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996", of India. The party serving notice of dispute on the other party shall also serve such notice on the Conciliator chosen as per this Clause. The Employer at the time of offering the panel of Conciliators to be appointed as Conciliator shall also supply the information with regard to the qualifications of the said Conciliators nominated in the panel along with their professional experience, phone nos. and addresses to the Consultant

22.8 Termination of Conciliation Proceedings

The conciliation proceedings shall be terminated:

a) by the signing of the settlement agreement by the parti*es on the date of agreement; or*

b) by written declaration of the conciliator, after consultation with the parties, to the effect further efforts at conciliation are no longer justified, on the date of declaration; or

c) by a written declaration of the parties to the conciliator to the effect that the conciliation proceedings are terminated, on the date of declaration; or

d) by a written declaration of a party to the other party and the conciliator, if appointed, to the effect that the conciliation proceedings are terminated, on the date of declaration.

Upon termination of the conciliation proceedings, the Conciliator shall fix the costs of the conciliation and give written notice thereof to the Parties. The costs shall be borne equally by the Parties unless settlement agreement provides for a different apportionment. All other expenses incurred by a Party shall be borne by that Party.

22.9 Suspension of Work on Account of conciliation

The reference to Conciliation shall proceed not withstanding that the Works shall not then be or be alleged to be complete, provided always that the obligations of the Employer, Engineer and the Consultant shall not be altered by reasons of conciliation being conducted during the progress of the Works. Neither party shall be entitled to suspend the work or part of the work to which the dispute relates on account of conciliation and payments to the Consultant shall continue to be made in terms of the Contract.

22.10 Judicial Recourses

In the event that a dispute remains unresolved via the conciliation process, the aggrieved party may seek judicial recourses.

22.11 Jurisdiction of Courts

Any suit or application, arising out of any dispute or differences on account of this contract shall be filed in a competent court at Bangalore, Karnataka only and no other court or any other district of the country shall have any jurisdiction in the matter.

22.12 Matters finally determined by the Employer

If the Consultant (s) does/do not prefer his/ their specific and final claims in writing, within a period of 90 days of receiving the intimation from the Employer that the final bill is ready for payment, he/they will be deemed to have waived his/their claims (s) and the Employer shall be discharged and released of all liabilities under the contract in respect of these claims.

23 Performance Certificate

Performance of the Consultant's obligations shall not be considered to have been completed until the Employer has issued the Performance Certificate to the Consultant, stating the date on which the Consultant completed his obligations under the Contract. The Employer shall issue the Performance Certificate within 28 days after the expiry of the Contract Period.
